

Part 2

General Information

The Coeur d'Alene Indian Tribe maintains exclusive jurisdiction to regulate the hunting and fishing by others. The Tribe and its members retain the right to hunt and fish without state regulation in the total area originally enclosed in the Reservation proclaimed by the President of the United States in 1873. All wildlife, including all wild animals, wild birds, fish, within the Coeur d'Alene Reservation and other areas over which the Tribe exercises authority are the exclusive property of the Coeur d'Alene Tribe.

The Coeur d'Alene Reservation is defined as the total land and water area within the exterior boundaries of the present Reservation

Anyone licensed by the Coeur d'Alene Tribe must comply with Tribal, State and Federal laws and regulations when hunting, and Tribal law and regulation when fishing within the exterior boundaries of the Coeur d'Alene Reservation.

Hunting, trapping and fishing is prohibited on the Coeur d'Alene Reservation except in accordance with Chapter 20 Hunting, Fishing, Trapping Code and accompanying regulations.

The following areas have been closed or restricted pursuant to Chapter 20-2.00 of the Coeur d'Alene Tribal Code:

1. Agency Reserve. This is permanently closed to all hunting and trapping by any persons. The Agency Reserve is the South Half, Section 22, Township 46 North Range 5 West, containing 320 acres.
2. Benewah Creek Closed to all fishing.
3. Lake Creek Closed to all fishing.
4. Heyburn and McCrosky State Parks Closed to all big game hunting.

It shall be unlawful for any Coeur d'Alene Indian to permit a non-member to hunt, fish, or trap on the allotments of such members or other lands within Reservation boundaries without complying with all the provisions of Chapter 20-7.00 (c) of the Coeur d'Alene Tribal Code and accompanying regulations.

No person shall utilize dogs in pursuing any wild game except for bear, mountain lion, upland game birds (except turkey), waterfowl pursuant to Chapter 20-7.00 (d) of the Coeur d'Alene Tribal Code.

It shall be unlawful for any person to operate a motorized vehicle for the purposes of chasing or harassing game animals on the Coeur d'Alene Reservation pursuant to Chapter 20-7.00 (e) of the Coeur d'Alene Tribal Code.

It shall be unlawful for any person to hunt any game species with a spotlight pursuant to Chapter 20-15.00 of the Coeur d'Alene Tribal Code.

Evidence of sex must be left attached to the carcass of any big game animal pursuant to Chapter 20-17.00 of the Coeur d'Alene Tribal Code.

No person shall abandon edible portions of fish or wildlife in the wild or at a meat processing plant. The leaving of edible portions of fish or wildlife at a processing plant for more than 30 days shall be considered unlawful. Any game that is considered as abandoned shall become the property of the Coeur d'Alene Tribe and shall be disposed of in a manner deemed appropriate by the Tribe.

No game birds or game animals may be taken from one-half hour after sunset to one-half hour before sunrise pursuant to Chapter 20-19.00 of the Coeur d'Alene Tribal Code.

The Reservation is closed to the harvest of all furbearers

Anyone found by the Coeur d'Alene Tribal Court to have committed such a civil infraction shall be liable for a civil penalty of not more than $5,000 for each infraction. In addition, penalty may include confiscation or forfeiture of all fish, game, weapons, vehicles, boats or other equipment used or involved in the infraction pursuant to Chapter 20-22.00 of the Coeur d'Alene Tribal Code.
