

USDA

Internship

Webinars

February 6, 7 and 8, 2012

From 3:00pm to 4:30pm (EST)

Topics covered will be:

- An overview of the USDA Internship Programs
- Student employment opportunities available for the summer of 2012
- Basic qualifications
- How to apply

Who should attend?

- Students currently enrolled in a college program (undergraduate or graduate):
 - ✓ Invitation is open to students in the following majors:
Agriculture, Environment, Science, Mathematics, Statistics and Technology
 - ✓ Students must be U.S. residents or U.S. citizens
- Faculty and Career Services Staff

Requirements to participate in the webinar:

- Have access to Internet
- Have access to a computer with speakers

TO REGISTER:

- Register to be able to log-in to the webinar.
- Send an email to Wenndy Carrasco, USDA Student Employment Program Manager, at wenndy.carrasco@dm.usda.gov
- Be sure to indicate in the email message the date you would like to register for (Feb. 6, 7, or 8)
- On the subject type: "RSVP for USDA Internship Webinar"

TO LOG IN:

- Check zone time before login into the webinar:
 - 🕒 4:00-5:30PM (AST)
 - 🕒 3:00-4:30PM (EST)
 - 🕒 2:00-3:30PM (CST)
 - 🕒 1:00-2:30PM (MST)
 - 🕒 12:00-1:30PM (PST)
- Click: <http://nifa-connect.nifa.usda.gov/hsigrantees/>
- Take photos while participating in the webinar with a brief description of what you learn through the webinar – photos will be posted at MYUSDA Newsletter.